

Partnership Agreement

Together with Danske Advokater (the Association of Danish Law Firms), we are focusing on the digitization of board work, both internally within the industry organization, in their trade associations, and in their many member companies.

Lawyers play a significant role in ensuring the development of board work, as well as compliance with legal frameworks and legislation. This includes compliance with GDPR, data storage, etc.